

Saving water, together.

From giving guests choices about how often their sheets and towels are washed to smarter kitchen and landscaping management, low flow options on property, and more – America's hotels are working to reduce water consumption.

